

Like most Americans I am deeply concerned about the centralization of media outlets and the end of the cross-ownership ban. Formally, I am stating a no vote, but I have no doubt in my mind the corporate interest with far outweigh the rights of the citizens to an unbiased and competitive news media. Please listen to the people, not the corporate dollars.

Thank you